Farnham Quilters News

Last month's meeting

Last month's meeting was our Christmas party thank you for all the lovely food and thanks to Elizabeth for organising some fun games/quizzes which had us all puzzling. Everyone got a Secret Santa present too, some of which have been shared on Facebook.

The quilt donated to Farnham Lions was won and claimed during December.

Farnham Maltings 2025

We need your quilts! An email has been sent out with details of how to enter your quilt, bag, hanging etc.

Sheila needs volunteers to help with Young Quilters, please let her know if you can help for a couple of hours – you get a free pass to the show!

Please bring fat quarters or other pieces of fabric that you don't want so that they can be cut and packaged as charm packs for sale (to top up our funds) Sheila will be bringing a cutting machine that you can have a go at.

Bring any quilts or hangings etc that you can't deliver to the Maltings on the Saturday, please put hanging sleeves on things that need to be hung.

It would be nice to include a display any miniatures or siddi quilted pieces that you have completed.

We have a profile page in the January Farnham and Villages edition of the Vantagepoint magazine, "Jottings"

Guild News

2025 Round Britain Retreat an online journey through the rich medley of British textiles and techniques!

18th and 19th January 2025

A virtual retreat, £50.00 to book visit quiltworks.co.uk

Building on last year's success with members from across the globe we're excited to present an incredible lineup of speakers and tutors from the UK and beyond.

Explore our Quilt Collection with Heather Audin and join Liz Nally, who will share the history of a special quilt. Sandie Lush will delve into Welsh and North Country quilts, while Lynne Edwards showcases her beautiful quilts from her recent exhibition. We're thrilled to welcome Brenda Gael Smith back from Australia for more engaging talks.

Experience Judi Mendelssohn's textile travels to Japan and gain inspiration from Pat Archibald on how travel influences creativity. Plus, don't miss Linzi Upton's interactive mini workshop!

Learn about Guild Bursaries, see the work of past winners, and receive advice from contemporary textile artist Joanna O'Neill on starting your journey with journal quilts.

This retreat promises creativity, knowledge, and inspiration from renowned textile artists. If you can't attend live, recorded talks will be available for four weeks. Secure your ticket today and be part of this enriching experience!

Sessions will be recorded and available for 28 days apart from the breaks and chats.

This event is only available to Quilters' Guild members
